Free to Be - Coming to Cardiff - 16th May

With home and family pressures, workplace challenges, health and relationships – it's difficult to know what's worth keeping up and what to let go. However many plates you're spinning it's easy to get distracted and lose sight of who God has designed you to be. Join us for Free To Be where you'll leave with inspirational, practical ideas, and a renewed vision to step out into the life God has called you to.

Cathy Madavan and Bekah Legg would love you to join them to explore together what freedom in Christ really looks like. In an evening full of their trademark honesty and humour, they'll look at these four themes:

Free to be me - How to be true to myself instead of letting others define who I am.

Free to love and be love - How to set boundaries and build healthy relationships.

Free to be real - How to live authentically in the midst of life's challenges.

Free to be brave - How to invest my life and make a difference. If not me, who?!

Early bird tickets only £4 if bought before the 7th April. There is more information on noticeboard in church hall.
